Filters & Scheduling

- New “ALL” filter & default changed to “ALL”
- Batches able to be scheduled successfully beyond 30-days from today

The screenshot shows two side-by-side panels from the Swift Shipping application. The left panel, titled 'Filters', has a red box labeled '1' around its top section, which includes buttons for 'ALL', 'OPEN', and 'ERROR', and date pickers for 'Start Date' (03/20/2024) and 'End Date' (04/20/2024). The right panel, titled 'Create New Batch', has a red box labeled '2' around its 'Batch Details' section, which includes a calendar grid, a date input field with a calendar icon, and a 'Purchase Order' field.

Customer Authorization

Setup

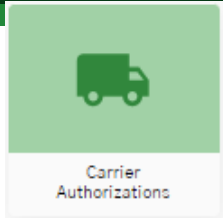

- 1. Ability to successfully edit volumes and save changes

The screenshot displays the 'Customer Authorizations' interface. On the left, there are filters for 'Multiple Term', 'Single Term', 'Terminals', 'Terminal Load Status', 'Authorization Status', 'Customer Name', 'Authorization Type', 'Loading Control ID', 'Product', 'Class', and 'Destination'. The main area shows a table of 'Authorizations Selected' with columns for 'Auth ID', 'Status', 'Products', and 'Term'. The 'Edit Authorization' modal is open, showing three authorization entries with their respective volumes highlighted in red. The 'Save' button in the modal is also highlighted in red.
